RELEASED IN FULL

BURUNDI

(LOU) Most of Bujumbura remained quiet, but fighting continued sporadically for the fourth straight day in the Kamenge suburb. Many Kamenge residents have reportedly fled into the hills. The Belgian Embassy reported that one of its vehicles was stoned by Tutsi youths on June 18 in Musaga (northwest of Bujumbura).

President Ntibantunganya opened a special session of the National Assembly on June 19. No decisions have been announced on either the President's request to rule by decree or a proposal to establish special criminal courts to consider cases involving the violence in the past 20 months.

RWANDA

(C) Embassy Kinshasa reports that UNHCR is still working on details and cost estimates for the relocation of refugee camps away from the Zaire/Rwanda border. Zairian authorities have not yet identified resettlement sites.
